

THEOLOGY AND SEMINARY

Campus contact person: College Pastor Matthew Marohl; Chair of Religion Department

The Association of Theological Schools recommends that college students study the following subjects:

Code	Title	Credits
	English language and literature
	History, including non-Western cultures as well as European and American Philosophy, particularly its history and its methods
	Natural sciences, both the physical and the life sciences
	Social sciences, where psychology, sociology, and anthropology are particularly appropriate
	The fine arts and music, especially for their creative and symbolic values
	Biblical and modern languages
	Religion, both in the Judeo-Christian and in the Near and Far Eastern traditions

Students should acquaint themselves with the specific entrance requirements of the schools to which they might apply.

Students interested in further advice may consult with the college pastor or with members of the Religion Department.
